

Ingredients

Glycerol: naturally occurring substance found in the cells of our body. It exerts a strong moisturizing power due to its hygroscopic properties. It accelerates the recovery of the skin barrier and promotes the maturation of corneocytes.

Hyaluronic acid: main component of connective tissue responsible for skin hydration and elasticity.

Biomimetic peptides: bioactive molecules capable of stimulating cellular regenerative processes. They accelerate tissue turnover increasing their thickness and elasticity.

Amino acids: they are the biological basis by which proteins are synthesized. They increase the activity of protein synthesis by improving the structure of the extracellular matrix

Vitamins: a complete and rich mixture for improving cell tropism and for revitalizing the skin.

Antioxidant substances: lipoic acid and superoxide dismutase, two molecules able to delete the harmful effects of the free radicals in charge of aging.
